For Immediate Release

Fifty-one high school students and forty other visitors from twenty-six communities attended the two "open house" sessions held at the University of Minnesota, Morris on March 30 and April 3.

Persons attending the open houses had the opportunity of visiting college classes in session as well as receiving information on the Morris collegiate program.

Dean Rodney A. Briggs gave the visitors a briefing after which a student information committee told the gathering of the many campus organizations and activities. A tour of the campus was followed by a discussion of student activities and the counseling and advisement program by H. G. Croom, Acting Director of Student Services and Dr. Stephen Granger, Counselor.

Communities represented by visitors to the open houses included Appleton, Atwater, Benson, Chokio, Clontarf, DeGraff, Donnelly, Dumont, Gonvick, Graceville, Hoffman, Johnson, Kandiyohi, Kerkhoven, Kettle River, Madison, Milan, Montevideo, Morris, Odessa, Ortonville, St. Olaf College, Springfield, Tamarack and Wheaton in Minnesota and Milbank, South Dakota.
